KRINGA, building plot with access from two streets, 1396 m²

Kringa, a mystical village near Tinjan, located about 20 km from the sea.

At the junction of two streets, with an open view of the old part of Kringa and the distant horizon, lies this building plot intended for residential use. Given the 1396 m² surface area and the rectangular shape of the land, as well as the access from two streets, the plot can be divided into two building plots.
